

* IHU Econ Students' Success Stories ****

«My name is Tsepela Chara and I completed the postgraduate program in Financial Management at International Hellenic University (Serres Campus), a choice that was an important milestone in my academic and professional career.

I chose this particular subject because I wanted to develop in depth my knowledge in the fields of financial analysis and business administration in a business environment that is constantly changing. This postgraduate program of studies contributed substantially to the development of my skills, not only at the theoretical level but also in their application to real examples and professional conditions. It significantly strengthened me in terms of self-confidence, organization and analysis, elements that I consider essential for a successful career in the field of financial management.

Today I feel particularly proud of choosing and completing the program and I continue with the goal of utilizing the knowledge and experiences I acquired to create value in the professional field where I operate».
