

Διοργάνωση εκδήλωσης με θέμα

“Monetary Theory in Historical Perspective”

Σας προσκαλούμε την Τρίτη, 12 Μαΐου, στις 12.00, στο Αμφιθέατρο 3 του τμήματος Οικονομικών Επιστημών στην εκδήλωση με θέμα “Monetary Theory in Historical Perspective” και ομιλητή τον καθηγητή Juan Zabalza, University of Alicante, Spain.

Juan Zabalza is a Full Professor at the Faculty of Economics (University of Alicante, Spain), where he teaches, among other topics, the History of economic thought. His research interests encompass the relationships between economic theory and economic policy, intellectual history, the history of economic analysis, the dissemination of economic ideas, and the institutionalization of economics from the 18th century to the 20th century. He has published in journals such as History of Political Economy, The European Journal of the History of Economic Thought, Journal of the History of Economic Thought, and History of Economic Ideas, among many others. His latest books, whether as author, editor, or coeditor, include Adam Smith and the ‘Wealth of Nations’ in Spain. A History of Reception, Dissemination, Adaptation and Application, 1777-1840 (Routledge, 2022); The Economic Legacy of José Joaquín de Mora. Spreading Classical Political Economy in the Hispanic World (Palgrave MacMillan, 2024), A History of Spanish Economic Thought. From Scholasticism to Keynesianism (Routledge, 2026) and the edition of works by the Spanish economists Germán Bernácer.

Θα χορηγηθούν βεβαιώσεις συμμετοχής.

Η Πρόεδρος του Τμήματος
Περσεφόνη Πολυχρονίδου
Καθηγήτρια